About Dr. A...

Michael Abruzzese, Ph.D., is a Clinical and School Psychologist, educator, speaker and author of 10 Lessons in Power Psychology. He has been working with schools, colleges and businesses for almost 40 years as a clinician, advisor and expert witness in the Courtroom, having testified over 250 times. Presently a Clinical Instructor at Tufts University School Of Medicine, Dr. A. still maintains a private practice and believes that knowledge of Psychology can help people overcome obstacles, exceed expectations and inspire others.
